From Poland to Italy as a student

Hirsz Brodacz, son of Lejzer, was born in Białystok (Russian Empire, later Poland) on 16 February 1913. He graduated from a co-educational secondary school in Białystok on 10 June 1931. His first registration at the Facoltà di Medicina e chirurgia in Pavia dates to the academic year 1932-33. He moved to Perugia, later matriculating as a third-year in 1935 in Siena (Student ID 1885). Regularly enrolled for all following years, he applied for admittance as a sixth-year on 15 November 1938. The Questura requested information of his effective enrollment at the L’Ateneo Senese as a «Jewish foreigner» on 17 November 1938. Hirsz defended his thesis on 18 October 1939, and like his wife – Cypa Aleksandrowicz – he graduated on 9 November 1939.

He and his wife were united by their education and the life they shared, even in their arduous journey through internment camps of Southern Italy: they were moved to Isola del Gran Sasso (TE) on 9 July 1940; to Atri (TE) on 8 October 1940; to Torricella Sicura (TE) on 21 July 1941; to Orsogna (CH) on 18 September 1942 until 8 September 1943.
